GET RICHIE QUICK

Sociable celebrity stylist of the Nicole Richie has enjoyed global success with her line of jewellery. House of Harlow 1960 Now, due to launch her clothing line, Wister Kate by Nicole Richie. Capturing her Bohemian, '70s vintage-inspired look, the mid- to high end collection promises elegant, more wing-dresses, beaded necks, cuff-like bangles and slip-up button jackets. To avoid the inspired line, Nicole has chosen ex-sister Victoria Beckham, daughter of massive soccer Donnie Steele. Preview online at celebrity-style cyber store www.madison.com, with deliveries in February.

LEADING THE CHARGE

Brisbane start label Yanguang has been selected to attend the G'Day USA Australian Designer Showcase in New York in January. The only Brisbane label in the show of 12, Yanguang will showcase its high profile 2009 Skyliner collection to high profile stylists, buyers and media. Capturing the movement attitude of 80s-bohemian club kids, the line is sure to stand out for its brilliant attitude. When they return, the brothers behind the label, Sam and James Cotton, will be opening their design studio in James Street, before showing at the L'Oréal Melbourne Fashion Festival in March. It's a label to watch. www.yanguangfashion.com.au
